Important Message from Southeast Louisiana Legal Services

While SLLS remains committed to providing high-quality legal aid, the health and safety of our clients, staff, volunteers, and communities is of utmost important. Accordingly, we are temporarily modifying how we deliver services to prevent the spread of COVID-19 where possible.

Effective immediately:

- All intakes will be conducted over the phone and not in-person. If you need legal help, you can apply online or call one our offices to apply for services. You can find phone numbers for our offices at <https://slls.org/contact-us/>.
- Our offices will remain open, but will be available to the public by appointment only. To make an appointment, contact your attorney by phone or email. If you do not have your attorney's contact information, email your attorney's name to communications@slls.org and we will email it to you.
- Our office phones and hotlines will remain open. In addition, we will be activating a COVID-19 Legal Intake Line shortly. We will provide updates on this page.

- All Self-Help Desks operated by SLLS will close until further notice. We are developing ways to provide Self-Help services remotely. We will provide updates on our Self-Help services on this page.
- All clinics and other events will be postponed or offered in online only formats. We will update information about those events on this page.
- We ask that any adults or children who have experienced any of the following to refrain from visiting our offices or clinics:
 - People who symptoms of fever, coughing, and shortness or breath; and
 - People who have been in close contact with someone who has a respiratory illness.

We thank you for your cooperation during this public health emergency.
